

MYSTIC CONVERSATIONS ON RACE

Sponsored by the St. Mark's Anti-Racism Team

AN INTENTIONAL BOOK CLUB

This intentional book club is intended for people who understand that the toxicity of historic and contemporary racism must be confronted...in our hearts, in our minds, and in our communities. In this book club, we will reflect on texts (fiction and nonfiction), films, and podcasts on race, racism, and white supremacy. We will create a “safe and brave space” to discuss ugly and uncomfortable issues, with the intent of building our individual and collective courage to help dismantle racism.

We will be reading (among others) Toni Morrison, Ibram X. Kendi, Isabel Wilkerson, Dorothy Roberts, Imani Perry and more. We will also be viewing/listening to films/podcasts by Katrina Browne, Ava Duvernay, and The New York Times “1619 Project.” Meetings are at the Mystic-Noank Library on the last Tuesday of the month, from 6:00-7:45 pm.

Kick Off Meeting: Tuesday, Feb 25, 2020

6:00 to 7:45 pm
